The Editor's Mail

Editor The Star: The county judge has not had Section 14 road graded since 1970. This is a short strip of the section line north of State Highway 355 between McNab and Saratoga. About 200 or 300 yards of Highway 355 need work badly.

I am the only one living here, but many travel this way to their pastures. When it rains I can't get out.

I am a citizen of Hempstead county. I deserve just a few hours of county work as a citizen.

MRS. LEILA STUART
June 27
Route One, Box 32
McNab, Ark.

Editor The Star: I'm sending you an article by my old boss, Otha Grisham, co-owner of the South Texas Offset Printing Corp. (Seguin (Texas) Enterprise).

The actual article was from letters to Congressman Jake Bickle to his constituents. I'm sure Otha would be glad to let you print this if credit was stated it was from his article.

He also is having trouble getting his paper out on time due to the mail.

My brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Ross, Rt. 1, Box 44-A, Washington, miss the paper at least once a week and many weeks more; of course, we realize this is not The Star's fault, but who wants to read news which is 4-5 days old?

Our good neighbor, Tom Boyce, also misses on the same days we do and asked me to tell you.

As you only too well know, it will cause you loss of subscriptions, regardless of who is at fault. I worked in dailies and two weeklies for 30 years, during which time, if anyone missed two copies, we lost subscriptions.

The article I'm enclosing, is from The Seguin (Texas) Enterprise. I hope you will print it. We sure don't need any other shortage of mail and if the papers can be late so will all other mail, regardless of its importance! I worked for Otha for 9 years and he is more than fair in his dealings and as honest a man as you can find any where.

The last paragraph is by Mr. Grisham and is his own political belief, but I also share the same thought. Sincerely yours for better mail service and as a reader of the STAR, I remain,

A. D. JONES JR.
June 27, 1972
Route One, Box 44-A
Washington, Ark. 71862

Owing to the pressure of original news—local and telegraph—we don't have space for reprints (except for the Other Editor reprints in this column on Saturdays), but we are grateful for Mr. Jones' letter on the mail service. We may reprint the Texas editorial later.

The Star will eventually remedy the local situation—either by a lawsuit to attempt to return the terminal and sorting section which was taken away from Hope May 6 and given to Oaklawn Post Office, Texarkana, Texas; or, if that fails, to supplement the local service by running an automobile with loaded mail sacks for delivery on supplemental post office permits at Washington, Ozan, and Nashville. That would guarantee next-day delivery of our newspaper mail, but would be expensive, since we would have to continue our second-class-mail deposits plus the cost of the motor run.

If this mess makes our subscribers burn I assure you the fire around the newspaper office is twice as hot.

Miss your paper?

City Subscribers: If you fail to receive your Star please phone 777-3431 between 6 and 6:30 p.m.—Saturday before or by 5 p.m.—and a carrier will deliver your paper.

When it rains. . .

It rained "cats n' dogs" here yesterday. But the Ark-La Gas Company had a slightly different encounter with the downpour—it rained inside the building. The hard rain produced a few leaks early in the day, but when a section of the roof cracked, torrents of water flooded into the building. Above, Jack McClellan of Emmet, La.,

Ark-La employe, scoops up some of the water on the floor with a small bucket. At left, Larry Golden of Arkadelphia, "kicks" his way through a puddle in the main office. Manager Bob Gullett said that all records were soaked and that spirits were dampened, but managed to quip: "When it rains, it pours."

U.S. to return to peace table

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has announced the United States will return to Vietnam peace talks in Paris on July 13 because he sees "a chance for more serious discussions."

Holding his first television-radio news conference in 13 months, Nixon gave no clue Thursday night to the nature of presumed secret dickering that is bringing both sides back to the conference table.

In fact, he coupled his veiled optimism with a statement that "we have been disappointed in the past with regard to these discussions"—suggesting history might repeat itself.

The Paris talks have been in the deepfreeze since early May. During a 43-minute session in the floodlit East Room of the White House, the seemingly relaxed chief executive also:

—Repeated high praise for Vice President Spiro T. Agnew but declared he won't make known his choice of a 1972 campaign running mate until the Aug. 21 Republican National Convention draws nearer.

—Expressed hope the courts will uphold the death penalty as a deterrent to such federal crimes as kidnapping and sky-jacking.

—Endorsed, in perhaps stronger language than before, legislation to tighten controls over cheap and readily available handguns.

—"I have always felt there should be a federal law for the control of handguns . . . The problem there is to write the law . . . in such a way that it is precise and deals with that kind of handgun which ought to be controlled."

—Cautioned Congress against any inflationary or inadequately financed increase in Social Security benefits.

—Saw the economy making great strides, while cautioning that he plans to do more to reduce unemployment.

Vietnam was the dominant topic.

Nixon said the United States "will return to the negotiating table . . . on the assumption that the North Vietnamese are prepared to negotiate in a serious and constructive way. We will be prepared to negotiate in that way."

He reaffirmed a May 8 offer to withdraw all Americans within four months in return for a supervised Indochina cease-fire and the return of American prisoners plus an accounting for those missing.

At another point, Nixon again claimed success for his Vietnamization program while declining to say exactly when Saigon forces might be able to operate effectively without U.S. supporting firepower.

"We expect, perhaps, some more North Vietnamese offensive," he said, "but I believe now the ability of the South Vietnamese to defend themselves on the ground, with the support we give them in the air, has been demonstrated."

Amendment aimed at death penalty

WASHINGTON (AP) — A death-penalty amendment to the Constitution has been proposed by a congressman who calls the Supreme Court verdict "harmful to the nation, faced as it is with rising crime."

The proposal was introduced Thursday by Rep. Louis C. Wyman, R-N.H., after the Supreme Court's 5-4 decision holding the death penalty unconstitutional as it is imposed under current laws in the United States.

The court's ruling is "contrary to society's right to the protection of this deterrent to murder," said Wyman.

Wyman, attorney-general of New Hampshire before he came to Congress, is a former president of the National Association of Attorneys General.

"It's too late to argue about whether the decision is right or wrong, for there's no appeal from the Supreme Court. The only answer now is an amendment to the Constitution and Congress should propose one right away," Wyman said.

Man injured in wreck, hits underpass support

A one-vehicle accident about 2:25 p.m. yesterday sent Delmar Pipkin of Hope to a local hospital.

Hope police said today that Pipkin was charged with DWI following the accident, which occurred at the railroad underpass on N. Hervey St. According to authorities, Pipkin turned onto Hervey off of Pond St., and struck the center support of the underpass. There was minor damage to the truck, the police said.

Pipkin was treated at the hospital and released.

Inmates feel 'satisfaction'

CUMMINS PRISON FARM, Ark. (AP) — Four Death Row inmates here Thursday expressed satisfaction that the U.S. Supreme Court had declared the death penalty unconstitutional.

The other two Death Row inmates, Joe Newton, Kaskabain of DeWitt, and Guy Lavern Kuehn of Littleton, Colo., refused to talk to newsmen.

The news came to the Death Row section in a news broadcast on a radio station.

I listened about an hour to see if I heard it right," said Charles Walker, 44, of Wrightsville.

Walker said he had been awaiting the decision for a long time.

heard the news earlier and were discussing it.

"At least I know I'm not going to die," he said.

Anderson Eugene Dubois, 25, of Courtland, Ala., apparently was the first to hear it. "I had sat up all night writing a song and didn't go to sleep this morning," he said. "I was listening to the news on the radio and heard they had abolished capital punishment. I told Emory O'Neal to wake up and find out what had happened. I got up and made coffee for the other inmates and I haven't been to sleep since."

Dubois said he couldn't describe the feeling of the news. "I was just happy," he said.

O'Neal, 32, of Hope, said he got down on my knees and prayed" when he heard the news.

"I feel like I got another chance on life," he said. "I got down on my knees and prayed for just for the men on Death Row but for all the inmates and ministers out there on the street who might commit a crime and go through what I had."

Daniel Lon Graham, 32, of East Springdale, said the news "boosted him." The laws are getting better because they are not getting worse," he said.

Walker said people are realizing that a lot of crimes that are sentenced but they don't even commit."

Dubois said that in the first 10 years he didn't believe Arkansas method of capital punishment, electrocution, should ever have been permitted.

"I can't see frying a man like a piece of bacon," he said. "If he is sentenced to die, then put him in front of a firing squad so it won't be so messy."

All the Death Row inmates were sentenced for murder.

The last man executed in Arkansas was Charles Franklin Fields, 32, who was electrocuted Jan. 24, 1964, for rape. He was the 169th person to be executed in Arkansas since the electric chair came to use in 1917. Of the executions, 148 were for murder, 21 for rape. The victims were 108 blacks, 38 whites and two Indians. None of the victims were female.

Work is scheduled to begin later this summer.

Death penalty decision does not shut the door

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court decision outlawing the death penalty as it is now imposed leaves the door open for Congress or the states to write new laws that would be considered valid.

But the door isn't open very much.

The only reason there is an opening at all is that only two of the five justices in Thursday's majority seem to have concluded that capital punishment is prohibited by the 8th Amendment for all crimes and under all circumstances.

They were Justices William J. Brennan Jr. and Thurgood Marshall.

The three others, Byron R. White, Potter Stewart, and to a lesser degree, William O.

Douglas, quarreled constitutionally not with capital punishment itself so much as with the looseness of sentencing procedures.

That is, the legislatures left it to judges and juries to choose to impose the death penalty in one instance of murder or rape and to impose a lesser sentence on another defendant for a similar crime.

White said that as a result the odds are very much against execution. "When imposition of the penalty reaches a certain degree of infrequency, it would be very doubtful that any existing general need for retribution would be measurably satisfied," he said.

Stewart said: "I simply conclude that the 8th and 14th Amendments cannot tolerate the infliction of a sentence of death under legal systems that permit this unique penalty to be so wantonly and so freakishly imposed."

But another way, Stewart said the death sentences before the court "are cruel and unusual in the same way that being struck by lightning is cruel and unusual."

Douglas, meanwhile, said the 8th Amendment requires legislatures to write criminal laws that are "evenhanded, nonselective and nonarbitrary" and requires judges "to see to it that general laws are not applied sparsely, selectively and spotily to unpopular groups."

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, one of the dissenters, took heart in the Stewart-White position.

He said: "Since the two pivotal concurring opinions turn on the assumption that the punishment of death is now meted out in a random and unpredictable manner, legislative bodies may seek to bring their laws into compliance with the court's ruling by providing standards for juries and judges to follow in determining the sentence in capital cases or by more narrowly defining the crimes for which the penalty is to be imposed."

But even Burger had to conclude that "since there is no majority of the court on the ultimate issue presented in these cases, the future of capital punishment in this country has been left in an uncertain limbo."

"Rather than providing a final and unambiguous answer on the basic constitutional question, the collective impact of the majority's ruling is to demand an undetermined measure of change from the various state legislatures and the Congress."

President Nixon, while volunteering that "any punishment is cruel and inhuman which takes the life of a man or woman," expressed hope the ruling will not prohibit the death penalty for such federal crimes as kidnapping and hijacking.

Justice Lewis F. Powell Jr., in his dissent, wrote that the decision not only wipes out all 600 death-row sentences in the nation and laws in 39 states, but denies to Congress and all 50 legislatures "the power to adopt new policies contrary to the policy selected by the court."

Troops within four miles of Quang Tri

SAIGON (AP) — Helicopters leaptfrogged hundreds of South Vietnamese paratroopers over their supporting armor today and landed them within four miles of Quang Tri City as Saigon's forces pressed ahead with their offensive to recapture South Vietnam's northernmost province.

Associated Press correspondent Holger Jensen reported that the assault zone was so heavily pounded by U.S. B52 bombers before the dawn lift that some of the helicopter pilots couldn't see through the clouds of dust and smoke. They had to land several hundred of the troops at alternate sites.

Officers said they encountered no heavy organized resistance, but the troops clashed sporadically with small groups of North Vietnamese soldiers and five enemy tanks were reported knocked out.

South Vietnamese tanks and armored personnel carriers advanced up Highway 1 behind the paratroopers, about three miles north of the My Chanh River. They found the shattered hulks of four enemy tanks which South Vietnamese marines had knocked out when Quang Tri Province fell on May

1. Infantrymen with the armor collected a number of abandoned heavy weapons.

Small groups of North Vietnamese snipers still lurked in bombed areas behind the paratroopers' front lines, and several South Vietnamese positions along Highway 1 took sporadic artillery fire.

President Nguyen Van Thieu flew to Hue and conferred for an hour and a half with his senior commanders in the drive to retake Quang Tri, now in its third day. He was smiling as he came out of the conference.

Government military spokesmen reported more than 250

North Vietnamese killed in fighting on the Quang Tri front and southwest of Hue on Thursday. South Vietnamese casualties were 29 killed and 93 wounded, they said.

Heavy clashes were reported by paratroopers and marines who made a pair of large-scale helicopter landings on the coast east of Quang Tri City on Thursday. Spokesmen said 90 Communist troops were killed in one of the battles and 73 in another.

The U.S. Command said more than 210 strikes were flown against North Vietnam Thursday.

Ford makes big recall

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. in its biggest safety recall campaign to date, has called back 4.04 million vehicles to replace two shoulder belt grommets that cost only pennies apiece.

According to P.E. Benton Jr., Ford's customer service division general manager, a small percentage of the grommets, which fit on the stud that attaches the shoulder harness to the lap belt, have broken with repeated usage.

FBI is following skyjacker's moves

DETROIT (AP) — The FBI is investigating the possibility that Martin J. McNally, arrested in the parachute-ransom hijacking of an airliner last weekend, had been stopped and let go near the parachute landing site by an Indiana police chief.

"It appears McNally was the same one picked up and let go Saturday night by police in Peru, Ind.," an FBI spokesman said in Detroit Thursday night.

Peru Police Chief Richard Blair said he questioned a man who identified himself as Patrick McNally, and he identified a picture of Martin as the man he stopped.

McNally was arrested at his Wyandotte, Mich., home Wednesday night and appeared in a U.S. District Court in Detroit Thursday, accused of being the air pirate who hijacked an American Airlines Boeing 727 near St. Louis, collected $502,500 ransom and two parachutes and bailed out over Indiana last Saturday. A bag containing $500,000 of the ransom was found in a field by a farmer.

McNally, 28 and unemployed, was held on $100,000 bond, then lodged in the Wayne County jail. A hearing was scheduled for July 11 to consider moving him to St. Louis for arraignment.

Chief Blair said he saw McNally walking along a highway late at night. He said he picked up the man for questioning but didn't arrest him because he was polite, well-dressed and did not match the description of the hijacker.

Police said a snub-nosed pistol was found in a highway drainage ditch near where the man was picked up.

Mrs. Amy Martin, a clerk at a motel near Peru, said a man who identified himself as Patrick McNally checked in between 11:30 p.m. and midnight Saturday.

"The skin was scratched on one side of his face," Mrs. Martin said Thursday. "He looked like he hit his face on the ground or cement."

"I don't know why," she added, "but I asked him if he was the hijacker. I was just kidding."

She said the man "just grinned and didn't say a word." She said he later told her he had been in a fight with his brother, who he said lived in Peru.

She also said two FBI agents who were participating in the search and staying at the motel passed the defendant on the stairs Monday night.

The investigation is continuing and FBI agents said possible involvement of other persons has not been ruled out.

Wallace will stick with party through the '72 convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maverick Democrat George Wallace will stick with his party through the convention where he'll demand adoption of a platform echoing his views, says the Alabama governor's campaign manager.

But after the convention, said Charles Snider, it would not be out of the question for Wallace to run once again as a third-party presidential candidate, if the Democrats act as expected and reject him as their nominee.

Snider would not speculate on Wallace's strategy if the party platform adopted next month at the Miami Beach convention displeases the governor. Snider talked with newsmen after conferring with Wallace at Holy Cross Hospital in Silver Spring, Md.

The party's frontrunner, Sen. George McGovern, waited today for the convention's Credentials Committee to resolve a challenge that could cost him nearly 150 delegate votes.

The challenge involves California's winner-take-all primary which added 271 votes to the McGovern column after his June 6 victory there. Supporters of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, who ran second, and seven other candidates on the California ballot claim the delegates should be apportioned according to the popular vote to conform with party rules.

The test comes at a time McGovern claims he is just 20 votes short of the 1,509 needed for nomination. The Associated Press delegate poll gives him 1,367.9, or 141.1 short of a majority.

Humphrey, who trails a distant second, clung to the hope that delegates would turn to him as the candidate "best capable of beating Mr. Nixon."

He blamed his own mistakes and a flawed selection process for wilting his candidacy.

Nevertheless, Humphrey said in an Associated Press interview, "I believe that I am the candidate that can build the coalition that will defeat Mr. Nixon."

Wallace's campaign manager honed the outlines of the floor fight shaping up over the platform.

Denouncing the draft prepared by the Platform Committee, Snider said, "We're going to Miami to fight it with everything we've got available to fight with. We felt like the people sent them a message. We felt like the Platform Committee didn't get the message."

South doesn't need to see all the enemy cards to bring home his contract. Just a flash of the ace of hearts and queen of spades in the West hand will be enough.

As it happens, West is not showing any of his cards and South has to operate in the dark. He starts out with the normal play of a trump at trick two.

West is in with the ace and if West is the sort of defender who tries to beat every contract he will give South an immediate problem.

West will see that the only chance to beat four hearts will be to find his partner with queen and one club.

After working this out, West will lead a low club. It is not really important which one he puts his finger on. The important thing is that East does have that queen and one club and unless South rises with dummy's king, East will win the trick with the queen; return the suit to West's ace and ruff a third club to ruin South's fine game contract.

We aren't going to tell you what actually happened. That is not important. The important thing is that West will have the only play to give declarer a chance to go down.

These Are Landlords' Rights?

DEAR HELEN:

We can't afford a lawyer, but we can't afford double rent for a month either.

My wife is a clean housekeeper. We have a dog and a cat. Animals are allowed, the landlord told us.

He refused to make repairs and fix a leak in the roof, so we were going to move when our lease was up—in another month. I think he was mad about that, so last weekend, when we were away, he came over and tore down the neat fence I had put up to keep our dog home—burned the posts and slashed the wire. Then he let himself in the house with his passkey, found our cat's litterbox and dumped it upside down on our rug (it doesn't come with the house). He broke a couple of dishes left on the drainboard and left us a note saying we were a "disgrace," and he never wanted to see a cat box in his apartment again.

This place is in better shape now than when we moved in and our animals never hurt anything. I felt like beating him up, but my wife restrained me.

Naturally we moved out right away. But now he says we have to pay for the month left on our lease. Can't we claim "just cause" for moving? Neighbors can verify this story. —HASLEED AND BROKE, IN SPRINGFIELD

P.S. He rented the apartment right away, so he isn't out any money.

DEAR H AND B:

Call the local Legal Aid Society or your district attorney. I'm not qualified to say, but I think you have good reason for breaking your lease—if not your landlord's head! This could be a planned attack to collect double rent. —H

DEAR HELEN:

Someone asked why the successful "other women" never write. So I'm writing. Bobby and I were both married too young, unhappily, and to the wrong people. Then HE came along. We met by accident, tried not to fall in love, didn't make it, and so we asked our mates for divorces. There was a feeling of relief all around—our mates knew they had made mistakes too.

We now know what real happiness is. We have learned from first mistakes and have finally —GROWN UP

DEAR HELEN:

The "other woman" isn't always the villain. My husband and his first wife were miserable together. They might have ruined both their lives by staying married, if he hadn't fallen in love with me. She gladly gave him a divorce and found a man she truly cared for. The four of us are great friends. Thank heaven, I didn't let his wedding ring scare me. —OTHER WOMAN TURNED WIFE

Freeman makes grand slam homer to beat Red Sox 8-4

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
The first time Billy Martin saw the friendly left field wall at Boston's Fenway Park he dented it with a run-scoring double as a brash young rookie with the New York Yankees in 1950.
The last time he saw it was Thursday night as manager of the Detroit Tigers and his ardor hadn't cooled one bit.
"Anything can happen in this ballpark and usually does," Martin said after the Tigers, blanked for eight innings by rookie Lynn McGlothin, exploded for eight runs in the ninth—the last four on Bill Freehan's grand slam homer into the screen atop that ever-present wall—and beat the Red Sox 8-4.
That increased Detroit's lead in baseball's American League East to two games over Baltimore, which lost to the Yankees 4-3, and sent the Tigers home to begin a big four-game series with the Orioles in a happy frame of mind.

Elsewhere, Chicago and Oakland split a doubleheader, the White Sox winning the opener 4-0 and the A's taking the nightcap 3-1; Kansas City took two from Minnesota 5-3 and 12-4; Milwaukee shaded Cleveland 3-1 and California drubbed Texas 12-4.
National League scores: Pittsburgh 9, Montreal 0; Philadelphia 9, New York Mets, 4; St. Louis 4, Chicago Cubs 2; San Francisco 3, Cincinnati 2; Houston 8, Los Angeles 6; San Diego 8, Atlanta 6.

Texarkana golfer wins women's tourney

Yesterday morning's rainfall almost forced a cancellation of the Hope Ladies' Golf Association-sponsored golf tournament, but the 63 women golfers teed off about 1 p.m. and finished nine holes late in the afternoon.
Taking top honors in the championship flight was Allie Billingsley of Texarkana with the low gross score (43), Alice Rozelle of North Little Rock, low net (38), and Patsy Collum of Texarkana, low put (12 for a

First flight winners in the three categories, low gross, low net and low put respectively, were Debbie Wood, Longview, Tex., Bobbie Bonds, Magnolia and Gloria Bennett, Gurdon.
Second flight: Lois Webb and Mae Wassell, both of Hope, and Sue Albritton of West Monroe, La.
Third flight: Sherry Allen, Benton, La., Ree Edwards, El Dorado, Norma Jean Delaney, Hope.

Fourth flight: Jessie Summers, Longview, Jerri Pruden, Hope, Lorraine Thompson, Shreveport.
Fifth flight: Ruth Green and Mary Hughes both Texarkana, Martha Smith, Hope.
Sixth flight: Margaret Oxford and Clara Line, both of Texarkana, Mary Kenig, Magnolia.
Seventh flight: Dot Murphy, North Little Rock, Mary Jo Brown, Hope, Joyce Cupit, Longview. Debbie Wood of

Longview hit the lowest drive and Ree Edwards was closest to the pin on No. 7.

McLain is back in the groove and ready to play

ATLANTA (AP) — "Arm-wise, weight-wise, control-wise and mind-wise, I'm back in the groove," says Denny McLain.
And today McLain also is back in the Major Leagues.
"I am happy as hell. It's super," said McLain Thursday when informed that the Oakland A's of the American League, which sent the pitcher to the minors five weeks ago, had traded him to the Atlanta Braves of the National League.
"I hear they (Atlanta) need pitchers," he said from Birmingham. "And if that's what they need, I'll do it for them. All I want is a fair shot at the big league again."

The deal also sent Orlando Cepeda, a $95,000 a year first baseman for the Braves, to Oakland for an undisclosed amount of cash and the right to purchase McLain.
McLain, a 31-game winner in 1968 for the Detroit Tigers, had early season problems at Oakland and, with a 1-2 record and a 6.05 earned run average, was sent to Birmingham of the Southern League. He had a 3-3 mark with a 6.32 ERA there.
McLain reports to the Atlanta squad tonight at Houston where the Braves are playing the Astros.
Cepeda, who has played 14 seasons in the National League with San Francisco, St. Louis and Atlanta, said he was happy to be going to Oakland. "It's a challenge and you can't look back."
The 34-year-old Puerto Rico native, who won the National League's MVP award in 1967, walked out on the Braves two weeks ago and was suspended for two days.

Giants defeat Braves 10-9

Exciting games were played last night in the Doctors League at Key Field. The Giants won over the Braves 10 to 9. The Giants winning run was scored in the bottom half of the last inning. Martin was the winning pitcher having 14 strike-outs while allowing only 1 hit. Leim was the losing hurler.
The second game of the evening was also a close one with the Cubs edging the Yankees 6 to 5. Jackson was the winning pitcher with 6 strike-outs and gave up 2 hits. Sutton was on the mound for the losers.
The Dodgers won over the Cards 6 to 3 in the last game of the night. Morrison hurled the 2 hit victory getting 14 strike-outs. Hughes & Smith shared mound duty for the Cards.
Next week the three games on tap are Cards vs Yankees - Braves vs Dodgers - and Cubs vs Giants.

The standings are:

	W	L
Cubs	7	1
Yankees	6	2
Braves	3	5
Cards	3	5
Giants	3	5
Dodgers	2	6

Conigliaro will retire

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Suspended Milwaukee Brewer outfielder Billy Conigliaro reportedly has decided to retire from baseball.
Brewer General Manager Frank Lane said Conigliaro phoned him Thursday from Boston and said he would file an application requesting that the Brewers place him on the retired list.
Let's face it. I just wasn't happy, and you can't perform when you aren't happy," Conigliaro was quoted by Milwaukee Sentinel sportswriter Lou Chapman as saying in today's edition of that paper.
There were so many things that bothered me, such as being away from home. I wasn't lonely or anything, but that, but things were getting too much on my nerves. Besides, my bother Tony, needed me in our business, which keeps expanding all the time," the paper quoted Conigliaro as saying in a Boston interview.

The brothers own a country club and adjoining restaurant and lounge in the Boston area.
Billy Conigliaro, who was traded to Milwaukee from the Red Sox after last season, was suspended without pay after he walked out of the clubhouse without explanation before a doubleheader between the two teams Sunday in Milwaukee. The 24-year-old outfielder later told the Brewers he was seriously thinking about dropping out of the sport, but would withhold a decision until talking to his family in Boston.

Americans face tough play at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — British bookies were offering odds of 100-1 today against a couple of American teen-agers carrying off both singles crowns in the Wimbledon Tennis Championships.
Such friendly odds—you bet one dollar to win a hundred—were certain to attract plenty of cash support for Jim Connors and Chris Evert.

Connors, the 19-year-old left-hander from Belleville, Ill., has reached the final 16 of the men's division. Miss Evert, 17-year-old star from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., has reached the last 32 in the women's singles.
"The odds seem rather big to me," Connors said. "I would have thought we have a better chance than the bookmakers seem to think."
If Connors reaches the quarter-finals he is likely to come up against Romania's Ilie Nastase, the No. 2 seed. Nastase, playing better on grass than he every has done before, is a tough proposition for anyone in a tournament weakened by the absence of the big stars of World Championship Tennis.
But even if the unseeded Connors got past Nastase he could find himself in a semifinal against the man he fears most of all—Colin Dibley of Australia.
It was Dibley, a power server with shoulders like an ox, who eliminated Connors' teacher, Pancho Gonzales, in the second round this year.
"I watched part of the match," Connors said. "Dibley was hitting rockets."
Miss Evert, seeded fourth in her first Wimbledon, could have an easier path to tread. But even if everything goes well in her next two matches she faces the prospect of meeting Australia's Evonne Goolagong, the defending champion, in the semifinals.

Connors forged his way into the last 16 by downing Italy's No. 1, Adriano Panatta, 6-3, 0-6, 6-4, 8-6. He was joined there by two other Americans—top-seeded Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., and Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif.

Schaefer 500 cancelled

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP) — The Schaefer 500, third richest race in motor sports, has been canceled at least for the time being.
Officials of the sanctioning U.S. Auto Club took the action Thursday when they showed up at Pocono International Raceway and found the track locked and guarded by policemen.
There is a chance it may be scheduled for a later date. William J. Smyth, executive director of USAC, said a meeting of the group's executive committee will be called soon, probably Saturday, to discuss a possible renegotiation of Pocono's racing schedule.
USAC has a five-year agreement with the raceway to sanction all of its major events, including a 500 mile race for stock cars scheduled for July 30.
Sunday's race was to have paid just over $400,000 in prize and accessory money. Only the $1 million Indianapolis 500 and the $750,000 California 500 at Ontario are richer.

Bob Watson rifles single to lead Astros to victory

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the Los Angeles Dodger fans in the audience today, there is some good news and there is some bad news.
First, the good news. The Dodgers are cutting their fielding errors. They made five boobos three games ago but reduced that total to three on Thursday.
Now, the bad news. They're still losing ball games in the field.
Ninth inning errors by Bobby Valentine and Steve Garvey delivered a gift run that tied Thursday's game for Houston and then Bob Watson rifled a single for two more runs and an 8-6 victory for the Astros, who moved to within one-half game of first place Cincinnati in the National League's West Division.
In other NL action Thursday, San Francisco edged Cincinnati 3-2, Philadelphia ripped New York 9-4, Pittsburgh shut out Montreal 9-0, St. Louis topped Chicago 4-2 and San Diego out-slugged Atlanta 8-6.
In the American League, New York nipped Baltimore 4-3, Milwaukee dropped Cleveland 3-1, Detroit knocked out Boston 8-4, California routed Texas 12-4, Chicago split a doubleheader with Oakland, winning 4-0 before losing 3-1, and Kansas City swept a pair from Minnesota 5-3 and 12-4.
The Dodgers wiped out an early 5-1 Houston lead, tying the score on Jim Lefebvre's three-run pinch homer in the sixth inning. Then, Los Angeles took the lead on Garvey's homer in the bottom of the eighth.

That's when the Astros played a dirty trick on the Dodgers. They started hitting the ball to Garvey instead of pitching it to him.
Norm Miller opened the Astro ninth with a pinch single and Jim Brewer relieved for the Dodgers. One out later, Cesar Cedeno, who had a two-run homer earlier, grounded to Garvey. The third baseman's throw got by Valentine, covering second, for an error and Miller wind up on third base and Cedeno at second.
Next, Jim Wynn bounced another grounder to Garvey and this time, the third baseman threw the ball away himself, allowing Miller to score the tying run. Cedeno stopped at third and Wynn wound up at second.
That was all the help the Astros needed. Watson followed with his two-run single, givinguston the victory.
Jim Barr spaced eight hits against Cincinnati and helped build San Francisco's winning run with a seventh-inning sacrifice.
Tito Fuentes opened the Giants' eighth with a single and moved up on Barr's bunt. Then hot-hitting Chris Speier lined a single to left, delivering Futures with the winning run, Speier's single was his 14th hit in the last six games.

CBC defeats Walkers' Ref.

In Little League play last night at K-Park CBC won over Walker's Ref. by a score of 9 to 0 in the first game, and the second game was won by Sheriff's beating Barry's 8 to 7.
Ira Scott was the pitcher for CBC. Walker's Ref. used Drew Easterling and Dennis Jones on the mound. Hitters for the winners were Vince Bishop, David Endsley, and David White. DeVoyt Whatley and Dennis Jones were the leading hitters for the losers getting one hit apiece.
In the second game of the evening Willis Williams and Dwain Mayfield were the pitchers for Sheriff's, and Paul Willis saw mound duty for Barry's. ## Americans are underdogs in Henley Regatta today

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP) — A heavyweight eight from Northeastern University in Boston carried American hopes in the Grand Challenge Cup at the Henley Royal Regatta today.
It's 13 years since an American crew grabbed the Grand, a once-ornate prize that has been a major part of Henley's tradition for more than a century.
A crew from Harvard took the Grand in 1959. Since then the trophy has been exported mainly to the Soviet Union and East and West Germany.
"We are the underdogs," said Northeastern's cox, Ernie Arlett. "And we like it that way. But this is no sentimental journey. We want to win."

Northeastern take on England's elite crew, Tideway Schullers, in the semifinal today. In the other semifinal Russia's Olympic eight from WMF Moscow meet the University of London England.
Northeastern's stroke Calvin Chiles of Jewett City, Conn., is rated a likely candidate for U.S. Olympic honors and the crew has been working out impressively over Henley's one-mile, 500-yard River Thames course under the expert guidance of Arlett.

The 59-year-old coach was born in Henley and knows the quirks of the river's varying currents probably better than any man alive.
The United States had an interest in both semifinals of the Diamond Challenge sculls, Henley's premier award for individual rowers.
U.S. champion Jim Dietz, from the New York Athletic Club, clashed with Russian Olympic gold medalist Alexander Timoshin, and Sean Drea, an Irishman from Temple University in Philadelphia, met British champion Ken Dwan.

To The Editor

This is your newspaper. Write to it. Address letters to: Editor The Star, P.O. Box 648, Hope, Ark. 71801. ## LEGAL NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 895

AN ORDINANCE CREATING THE HOPE MUNICIPAL PARKING AUTHORITY; PRESCRIBING OTHER MATTERS RELATING THERETO; AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the City of Hope, Arkansas (the "City") has determined that there exists in the City a need for additional off-street automobile parking facilities; and

WHEREAS, the City is authorized by Act No. 468 of the Acts of Arkansas of 1949, as amended, ("Act No. 468") to create a parking authority to investigate the parking problems within the City and to establish public off-street automobile parking facilities;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Directors of the City of Hope, Arkansas:

Section 1. There is hereby created the Hope Municipal Parking Authority (the "Parking Authority") for the purpose of establishing public off-street automobile parking facilities in the City. The Parking Authority shall consist of five (5) members, who shall be appointed by the Mayor and approved by the Board of Directors. Each member shall be a qualified elector residing in the City, and cannot hold any elective office of the City, County or State during the time he is a member of the Parking Authority. The initial members of the Authority shall be appointed for periods of one (1), two (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5) years, respectively, so that the term of one member shall expire each year after the creation of the Parking Authority. Upon the expiration of the term of each member his successor shall be appointed in like manner for a term of five (5) years. Each member shall have been appointed and qualified. The members of the Parking Authority shall receive no compensation for their services.

Section 2. The Parking Authority shall proceed promptly to make a thorough investigation of the parking problems within the City and shall formulate for public presentation a master plan of presentation and proposed automobile parking facilities as a guide for the further provision for parking facilities, properly integrated with present and proposed traffic facilities, and subject to alteration as necessary. A program of construction and method of financing shall likewise be formulated.

Section 3. After public presentation of the master plan of automobile parking facilities as provided in Section 2, the Parking Authority, either acting alone or in cooperation with other parking authorities, or with any federal or state agency, is authorized to plan, design, locate, recommend financing for, acquire and own property for, construct, alter, enlarge, use, maintain, operate, and lease (either as lessor or lessee) public off-street automobile parking facilities; and to supervise and control all other matters pertaining to the parking of vehicles thereon.

Section 4. The Parking Authority shall maintain proper accounting and financial records as to all money and property within its custody and control and as to all transactions within its area of responsibility, and shall file annual financial statements with the City Clerk.

Section 5. For purposes of this Ordinance, the term "public off-street automobile parking facilities" shall mean accommodations provided by the City or the Parking Authority for the parking of automobiles off the street or highway, and open to public use, with or without charge. Such facilities may consist of improved or unimproved lots, single or multi-level garages and other structures and accessories and may be either surface facilities or facilities above or below the ground, or any combination thereof.

Section 6. The Parking

Authority shall have the authority, and be subject to the limitations, specified in Act No. 468. The Parking Authority shall have no authority to obligate any funds of the City except funds in its custody, and shall have no authority to incur indebtedness or mortgage any of the property or facilities in its custody without the prior approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. It is hereby found and declared that excessive curb parking of motor vehicles on streets in the City and the lack of adequate off-street parking facilities in the City create congestion, obstruct the free circulation of traffic, diminish property values and endanger the health, safety and general welfare of the public, that the provision of conveniently located off-street facilities is immediately necessary to alleviate such conditions and that this Ordinance is a necessary prerequisite to the provision of such off-street parking facilities. Therefore, an emergency is declared to exist and this Ordinance, being necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety, shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval.

PASSED: June 27, 1972.

Mayor

summer to elect the first Methodist bishop.

They've even stirred theological rethinking about the "gender" of God.

The image of an "exclusively He-God" has been used for sexual oppression, writes Catholic theologian Mary Daly of Boston College in a recent issue of Commonweal. She adds that getting rid of the primitively instilled view of a "masculine divinity" may bring a more authentic language of transcendence for God.

Although Judeo-Christian theology always has recognized that God transcends sex or other human objectification, some thinkers suggest that the concept, in human understanding, might better be as both "father-mother".

In the arena of church officialdom, the possibility that there might soon be a "Madam Bishop" turned up in advance of a heavy concentration of episcopal elections scheduled in

SOURCE OF OUR FREEDOM

Nearly two centuries ago in the fateful course of human events Liberty was born. With justifiable pride we declared our Independence... Liberty and the rights of all men. The spiritual aspect of the proposition of freedom, equality and justice for all was fundamental in the development of these new ideas. Liberty loving fathers, possessed of unyielding faith and vital religious convictions supplied the genius. Before a government could be founded on the brotherhood of man... there had to be the Fatherhood of God. Then let us preserve this freedom through eternal vigilance, unceasing prayer and unflinching faith. Independence!!!... the Fourth of July. Let us ever remember the source of our freedom... The Book, A-Men.

Nixon cautions Senate about 20 per cent hike

By JOE HALL,
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has cautioned the Senate that a 20-per-cent Social Security increase due for a vote today would either strain the economy or push taxes up for millions of workers.

He indicated support for a 10-per-cent increase offered by some Senate Republicans as an alternative to the higher figure pushed by Democrats.

But there were predictions the higher figure would be adopted from both Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, its chief sponsor, and Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, author of the rival measure.

Nixon told a news conference Thursday night "there should be an increase in Social Security" but went on to suggest that 20 per cent would be too much.

He said that if the 20-per-cent hike is financed by higher payroll taxes, as provided by the Church amendment, "it will completely wipe out the tax reduction that was given to middle-income and low-middle-income wage earners in 1969."

"If, on the other hand," he continued, "the Congress passes the 20-per-cent increase in Social Security and does not finance it adequately, it will seriously jeopardize the integrity of the Social Security trust fund, and it could be highly inflationary which, of course, will hurt most the Social Security people, the retired people."

Nixon did not discuss whether he would veto a 20-per-cent increase if Congress approves it, but it would be extremely difficult for him to do so.

The measure is in the form of an amendment to the bill extending the rational-debt limit, legislation the administration needs within a few days if it is to continue paying its bills.

If the 20-per-cent boost becomes law, it would hike Social Security payments by about $8.5 billion annually—the biggest increase in the 37-year history of the system.

Church's proposal would raise payroll taxes to finance the increase. The maximum levy would go up from $468 each for the worker and employer to $594 apiece in 1973.

If Church's amendment is adopted, Republicans said, it will be in trouble when the debt bill is returned to the House.

Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis.,

senior Republican on the House Ways and Means Committee, said he would use every parliamentary device available to delay action until next week.

Byrnes said he would relent if Democrats would compromise on 10 per cent.

Business Mirror

NEW YORK (AP) — Wall Street's efforts at selling itself to the public are being betrayed, a distinguished securities official has charged. The traitor: the language.

Wall Street's vocabulary is, so to speak, the language of the street. It is unique, quaint, mysterious, slangy. And, in the opinion of Leon Kendall, "it binds our thought processes."

Kendall is president of the Securities Industry Association, a trade group that represents many of the large stock market firms. As he sees it, street talk reveals more about the user than it communicates to the listener.

"The customer can have a round lot or an odd lot," says Kendall. "He can have a Big Board stock or perhaps an over-the-counter stock. If he's lucky, maybe even a hot issue."

"If he's a little more sophisticated, perhaps we can offer him a put or a call, strips, straddles, spreads, or maybe a discretionary account."

"Of course, if he's looking for growth, we're likely to just offer him ordinary common stocks, certainly not preferred stock. Perhaps we might talk to him about mutual funds."

"Here he can have an open-end fund or a closed-end fund, or maybe even those one-time wonders the dual-vest funds. Whatever the type, he will be offered the load fund or the no-load fund, or perhaps a front-end load fund."

The vocabulary of Wall Street is spoken swiftly and with assurance that only those who should know will understand.

Naturally enough, a member of the buying public seldom dares to penetrate this world lest he be revealed by a foolish question. Language of that sort is meant to discourage questions. Some of it can be traced back to the day when the public wasn't needed. Now it is.

Kendall reminded a recent marketing meeting of the New York stock exchange that a poor vocabulary not only limits the capacity to think, but more importantly, it limits the ability to pick up new business.

Antipoverty bill is OK'd

WASHINGTON (AP) — Overriding opposition from the White House, the Senate has passed a $9.6-billion antipoverty bill which sets up an independent corporation to help the poor with legal problems.

After a week of sometimes angry debate, the Senate Thursday voted 74 to 16 to approve the measure and send it back to the House, which passed a somewhat different version last February.

A conference will attempt to iron out differences between the two versions after Congress returns July 17 from the recess for the Democratic National Convention.

The Senate measure authorizes funds for two more years for programs aimed at helping the 26 million Americans officially designated as living in poverty.

The bill authorizes funds quite a bit higher than President Nixon recommended for many programs of the antipoverty agency, the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The measure does not give Nixon the authority he sought in handling or transferring programs. And administration officials indicated they still are not satisfied with the form of the Legal Services Corporation contained in the bill.

Thus, the possibility looms that Nixon might again veto the legislation when it reaches him.

Last December, he vetoed a measure containing similar OEO provisions but also setting up a large federal child-care program. Child care is being handled in separate legislation this year.

A Republican move to strike from the bill the provision for the Legal Services Corporation was turned back by a 56-34 vote Thursday. The same move lost Monday on a 46-37 vote.

People who test drive a Chrysler, buy a Chrysler

Here's why:

"For the money I spent I got the best possible car I could buy. It's more car for the money than you'll get in any other brand."

"I bought a Chrysler Royal and before I did I checked it out against a comparably equipped Ford LTD and, you know, there wasn't $50 difference between the two."

"Women love like Chrysler. And for much the same reason, a man in a Chrysler gets a big, wide, open, comfortable ride. In this everything is big but the price. And that's one of the sweet things about a Chrysler. See us and see why."
